Allen Dulles Nominated Formally as CIA Chief

President Eisenhower today formally nominated Allen W. Dulles to be director of the Central Intelligence Agency, the Government's top security establishment.

Mr. Dulles, brother of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, is to succeed Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, now Undersecretary of State.

The White House also asked the Senate to approve the appointment of Howard H. Gordon, Richmond (Va.) administrator of the Production Marketing Administration, to be a member of the board of directors of the Commodity Credit Corp.

Gen. Eisenhower also appointed Russell Forbes as acting defense materials procurement administrator.
